

COMMUNION

THE BLOODFEAST OF BABYLON

"And the Whore of Babylon...having a GOLDEN CUP in her hand full of abominations and filthiness of her fornication...And I saw the Whore DRUNK WITH THE BLOOD of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Yahsha.."

- Revelation 17:4,6

Webster's New World Dictionary -

"Cannibal, n. [Spanish canibal, a savage ...
1. a person who eats human flesh and blood,
2. an animal that eats its own kind..."

Does the religious ritual of "communion" have its true origins in ancient pagan mysteries? Did the Torah-observant Messiah of Israyl actually say to "eat his flesh and drink his blood", as found in John 6:51-58? Scholars agree that these verses were ADDED LATER to the Greek text by pagan editors called "redactors" - to spread Babylon's abominations of Baal's ancient rite - cannibalism.

The NT Book of Luke does NOT CONTAIN the words "eat" or "drink", nor does the NT Book John include the "communion" ceremony- which we are to believe is a MUST to have eternal life! How could the Apostle John forget this? Only The Remnant of YHWH resolves the contradictions! Learn what Yahsha Messiah really taught -Torah!

"When the wicked, even mine enemies and my foes, came upon me to eat up my flesh, they stumbled and fell" - Psalms 27:2

The "Holy Bible" - Book of Confusion

"Come out of her my people, so that you do not partake in her sins, and so you do not receive her plagues." - Revelation 18:4

The Remnant of YHWH believes wholeheartedly in the originally inspired Hebrew "New Testament" writings of the Apostles of Yahsha Messiah. The Torah-observant, Sabbath-keeping, Hebrew-speaking Jewish men were righteous witnesses to the Torah-based teachings of the Messiah of Israyl and Savior of the world. Based upon the abundant evidence found in various bible commentaries and encyclopedias, English translations, such as the KJV, have been grossly mistranslated to reflect the ritualistic abominations of the ancient mysteries of Egypt, Babylon, Greece and Rome. Not only have the true Names of the heavenly Father and His Son - the firstborn from the dead! - been REMOVED from all English versions and replaced with abominable pagan titles: "LORD"&"God"(Jer.23:26-27), but the very name of the fertility goddess of WAR "Easter" has replaced the correct "passover" of Acts 12:4 KJV

These are just a few examples of the pagan translator's blatant disregard for the pure & saving doctrines of YHWH (1 Tim.3:16). Hey, don't be surprised...the mistranslations were prophesied in Yeremyah-Jeremiah 8:8-9! Ironically, is that why the KJV has been called the "Holy Bible"? Since in Hebrew "holy" literally means: foolish, and "bible" means: confusion (Strong's Heb#894). The corrupted English KJV or the "Holy Bible" has truly become a book of "foolishness and confusion".

Those who regard as inspired from YHWH the obvious pagan manipulation of the NT are truly foolish and confused if they believe that Yahsha instructed the "drinking of blood" for everlasting life! Such doctrines of Baal break YHWH's Law!

Sacraments of Baal

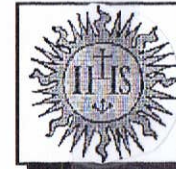

Because the pagan gods were cannibals, such as the Roman solar-god Saturn - "eater of his own children", omophagia and human sacrifice as worship was commonly practiced. This Roman god Saturn was celebrated at the Feast of Saturnalia during the winter solstice (origin of Dec.25th, dolls & xmas trees).

Initiates of the mystery religions sought unity or "communion" with their god to achieve immortality. That was the purpose of the pagan meal - food symbolising the body of the god eaten to unite the god and the worshiper. Primitive societies believe that cannibalism can be used to confer the qualities of the person eaten to the person eating. It is a slight step to eating a person assumed to be a god incarnate to get the qualities of the god himself. If cannibalism had died out in the Roman Empire by the time of Yahsha Messiah, rites that imitated it were very common. Ceres, the goddess of grain, gave her flesh to eat, and Bacchus, the god of wine, gave his blood to drink. In the cult mysteries of Dionysus the baked image of a child was eaten. The historian Durant tells us that the belief in the transubstantiation as practiced in the Roman Church, is one of the "oldest ceremonies of primitive religion." Amongst the religious orders practicing this rite were: Persians, Pythagoreans, Gnostics, Brahmins and Mayans. Since the days of Justin Martyr 140ce, early writers have had to explain the similarity of communion to pagan sacraments, such as those of Mithras.

"Mithraism had a Eucharist, but the idea of a sacred banquet is as old as the human race and existed at all ages and amongst all peoples."

- The Catholic Encyclopedia, Vol. 10, p.404.

"The pagan appeased the divine with holy bread." - wrote Tibullus

"In Egypt, a cake was consecrated by a priest and was supposed to become the flesh of Osiris. This was then eaten and wine was taken as part of the rite." Encyclopedia of Religions, Vol.2, p.76.

"Even in Central America, among those who had never heard of "Christ", Catholic missionaries were surprised to witness a religious rite which reminded them of communion...and image made of flour, after consecration by priests, was distributed among the people who ate it...declaring it was the flesh of the diety." - History of the Conquest of Mexico, V.3

"Eating the flesh of a god was of cannibalistic inception." - The Two Babylons, A.Hislop, p.232. Since heathen priests ate a portion of all sacrifices in cases of human sacrifice, priests of Baal were required to eat human flesh. Thus, "Cahna-bal", that is, "priest of Baal", is the basis of the modern word "cannibal". Yahsha Messiah is no Baal priest!

"Easter, the consort of Baal was known as the goddess of war! In the Baal epic, Easter appears nude in an incredible blood orgy of destruction butchering mankind, young as well as old, in a most horrible fashion, wading ecstatically in human gore - (drinking their blood)" - Ungers B.D, p.412.

Kali is the Hindu goddess of blood, death, and destruction. She has human sacrifices performed in her name - even today. In Hindu mythology, she is a ferocious slayer and has an insatiable appetite for blood, which her servants try to give her. These are the unscriptural pagan origins of all religious blood-drinking ceremonies.

"That which is to die, let it die...Let those who are left EAT THE FLESH OF ONE ANOTHER!" - Zechariah 11:9

Headlines - Cannibalism at Large

The training-up of children in Babylon's sins of religious cannibalism is one cause for most of the confusion we found in the world today. The power of satanic religious doctrines to corrupt any culture is revealed in the following headlines from 1998...

"Clari-Item Story London, Jan.27 (AFP)- Eating people may be morally wrong and repugnant, but it is not, strictly speaking, illegal, the British govt. disclosed Tuesday. Home office Minister Alun Michael said in a House of Commons written reply that the govt. had no intention of making cannibalism a specific criminal offence."

"Sunday Times London, Apr.12 - Starving North Koreans are being driven to cannibalism...one unidentified 23-year old from the Chinese border village of Buk Cheng told the charity of seeing a family eat their own daughter. 'It is true. I saw it with my own eyes,' she said." (Read Deut.28:53)

"Cannibalism was rife among the Fore tribe living in Papua New Guinea. Until the late 1950's many Fore perished from Kuru (a crippling prion disease or CJD-human form of mad-cow disease). Kuru was transmitted at cannibalistic funeral feasts where bereaved women and children ate the flesh of their dead relatives..." - Andy Coghlan, New Scientist.com, Apr.2003.

"...On July 13, 1992, Jeffrey Dahmer ignored his lawyer's advice and changed his plea to guilty... that he did lure his many victims, murdered them in cold blood and ate them" - www.crimelibrary.com.

Oddly enough, Jeff Dahmer was just living up to his name. "Dahm" in Hebrew means: blood, there-by "Dahm-er" can literally mean: blood-drinker.

Hocus Pocus

Do Catholic priests have the magical power to change the elements of bread and wine into the very flesh and blood of Baal during a Mass ritual?

"It is called transubstantiation for in the Sacrament of the Eucharist the substance of bread and wine do not remain...but is changed into the body and blood of Christ." - The Catholic Encyclopedia, V.4, p.277. There is no evidence that any change comes to the elements thru this Romish ritual. In this ceremony of Babylon, the Catholic priest blesses the bread and wine in the Latin, "Hoc est corpus meus." In view of the fact that no change takes place, we can understand the origin of the magical expression "hocus pocus". At the Council of Trent (1545-1563), the infamous Jesuits proclaimed that belief in transubstantiation was essential to salvation, and a curse pronounced on anyone who believed otherwise - "If anyone saith that in the Mass a true and proper sacrifice is not offered to God...let him be anathema" Rejecting this ritual of Babylon marked you as "anathema from Christ". History proves that obeying the Torah of YHWH branded you for the "Inquisition"!

Scholars Admit Forgery!

"You shall not add to the word which I command you..." - Deut.4:2
"Although large numbers of Jews were followers of Yahsha, non-Jews came to predominate in the early Church. They controlled how the gospels were written after 70 CE and how the texts were interpreted. Hellenistic religion of the 1st & 2nd centuries was deeply influenced by cults called Mysteries, in which a worshiper would be joined to the death and resurrection of a god by...ritual."
- The Eucharist, Bible Review, Dec.1994, p.37.

Scholars admit that "Yahsha's Memorial" was thereby re-written by cult-members of Dionysus to reflect the ritual of "eating" the flesh and "drinking" the blood of Dionysus INSERTING the spurious passage of John 6:51-58. The Anchor Bible, under "The Gospel According to John, Introduction, B.Sacramentalism" p.CXI, "Perhaps on no other point of Johannine thought is there such sharp division among scholars as there is on the question of Sacramentalism...there is a group who see NO references to the sacraments in John For some, the ORIGINAL GOSPEL was anti-sacramental! John narrates neither the eucharist action of Yahsha at the Last Supper... emphasis in John chapter 6 is on "the word" not sacrament; scholars such as Bultmann and Bornkamm call attention to an Ecclesiastical Redactor due to "differences in Greek style, breaks and inconsistencies in sequence, repetition in discourse, passages not belonging to their context" Theories view John 6 as having undergone SEVERAL EDITIONS AND REDACTIONS...For instance, one German scholar arrived at 6 combinations of these." The Anchor Bible commentary declares, "The problems in John are obvious, and it is possible that various editings (numerous additions by pagan editors) caused these problems." On p.284 we see the General Comments for v.51-58, "in this section, the Eucharistic theme which was only secondary in v.35-50 comes to the fore and becomes the exclusive theme. No longer are we told that eternal life is the result of believing in Yahsha; it comes from feeding on his flesh and drinking his blood (54)...If we grant that the primary meaning of the "bread of life" changes in vss.51-58 from the meaning seen in vss.35-50, do the two parts of the discourse really belong together?...Is 51-58 an extraneous block of material...?" Now p.259 admits, "These observations do not rule out the possibility that vss.51-58 were ADDED AT A LATE STAGE OF THE EDITING OF CH.6..." Page 287 concludes: "...vs.51-58 were added to 35-50 at a fairly late stage in the editing of the Fourth Gospel probably in the final redaction (editing)."

To the Law and the Prophets...

"All things must be fulfilled which were written in the Law and the Prophets concerning Me...then He opened their understanding...to the Scriptures." - Luke 24:44-45

Yahsha Messiah came not to do His own will, but to fulfill the Law and Prophets - setting the righteous example for us to follow. (Matt.5:17-20)

"To the Law and the Prophets, if they speak not according to these words, it is because there is no light in them." - Y'shayah 8:20

"For I have not spoken on My own; but the Father Who sent Me gave Me the Commandments-this is what I say and what I speak! And I know that His commandments are life everlasting" - John 12:50

Yahsha Messiah taught the Law which states, "For the life of the flesh is in the blood...It is the life of all flesh. The blood sustains its life. Therefore, I said to the children of Israyl: You shall not eat the blood of any flesh.. whoever eats/drinks it shall be cut off." - Lev.17:14. The prohibition against eating raw uncooked flesh and drinking blood is first found in Genesis 9:4, "But you shall not eat flesh with its life-blood in it." The blood of animals offered to YHWH for sin was always "poured out" on the ground at the base of the altar of YHWH - never did the Levites drink blood to atone for sin! For again, the Law of YHWH declares,

"And Mosheh killed it. Then he took the blood, put some on the horns of the altar...to purify it; and then he Poured OUT the blood at the base of the altar. So he consecrated it and made atonement for it." - Leviticus 8:15 ("pour" Heb#8210 shaphak)

"Then there will be a place YHWH will choose to establish His Name; and there you will bring...your offerings...only YOU MUST NOT EAT THE BLOOD you must POUR IT OUT on the ground like water." - Deuteronomy 12:11,16 (Also Ex. 29:12)

The Prophets of YHWH upheld YHWH's Laws and described YHWH's enemies as blood-thirsty!

"Deliver us from the workers of iniquity, and save us from bloodthirsty men!" - Psalms 59:2

"The people pounced on the plunder of the Philistines and took sheep, oxen, and calves - butchering them and eating them with the life-blood. Then they told this to king Shaul, and said, 'Look, the people are sinning against YHWH by eating the blood...'" - I Samuyl 14:32-33a

"Their sorrows are multiplied who seek after Elohim! We offer not their blood gift! We do not say their names!" - Ps.16:4

"For this is the day of YHWH's vengeance, that He may avenge Himself upon His enemies. The sword will devour and will be made drunk with their blood..." - Yereyah 46:10

To "eat someone's flesh" appears in the Tenach as a metaphor for hostile action! In fact, in the Aramaic tradition transmitted thru Syriac, the "eater of flesh" is a title of the Devil, the slanderer and adversary par excellence! The Prophets say, "I YHWH will feed those who oppress you with their own flesh; and they will be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine. All flesh will know that I am your Savior and Redeemer" - Isa. 49:26

"The bloodthirsty hate the upright."
Proverbs 29:10a

Let Us Magnify the Torah!

Yahsha Messiah magnified the spirit of the Law making it honorable! (Isa.42:21) Never would He have instructed the breaking of YHWH's Laws - neither in spirit nor letter (Luke 16:17) Yahsha contradicts in John 6:63 saying flesh is "useless" for attaining eternal life! It's the Laws of YHWH that are Spirit and Life (John 12:50; 15:10). Only the Testimony of Luke remained untouched by the cannibals of Dionysus, as "Yahsha's Memorial" here DOES NOT CONTAIN the words: "EAT" nor "DRINK"! In Luke 22:19, after passing around the "Marriage Cup" of wine, Yahsha "breaks" the bread in symbolic fashion to show that his body would be broken for us, fulfilling the prophecy in Isa. 53:3-7. In verse 20, the wine symbolizing His blood was "poured out" (shed-KJV) showing the fulfillments of Ps.22:14 & Isa. 53:12! Yahsha was magnifying & teaching the Law and Prophets - not cannibalism!

I Corinthians 11 - Mistranslated

"But I say the things which the gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to demons and not to YHWH, and I do not want you to have fellowship with demons!"

- 1 Corinthians 10:20

Shaul warned the new Corinthian brethren not to return to their Dionysian roots! He rebuked them for eating the symbolic "flesh and blood" saying, "When you come together for memorial ceremony, IT IS NOT TO EAT YAHSHA'S MEMORIAL!"(v.20). This breaks the Law of YHWH and is "fellowship with demons!" The Apostles required all new Gentile converts to keep the Law of YHWH and not eat blood (Acts 15:28-9). The newly converted Corinthians of Greece were well aware of their pagan upbringing in these bloodfest cults. This return to ritual blood-drinking was the CAUSE of the divisions among them (1 Cor.11:17-19) The next vs.21-22 reinforce this is NOT A MEAL! & to eat at home! In vs. 23-26, remove the added words "eat" and "drink", and we find Luke's pure version again. Those eating & drinking Yahsha's Memorial symbols are DAMNED! (v.29) Yahsha is not a pagan god - Reject the Bloodfest of Babylon!
